PRESIDENT'S POINT

And Now a Word from your President...

Hello Top Cats!!

I hope you and all your families are all doing well and you are ready to hit the road.

Now that the weather is close to normal and, as I like to say, I can leave the house with the same clothes I wore inside..., we can get out and enjoy the fresh air and great company, and maybe a good lunch stop and maybe ice cream. Now I'm hungry and forgot where I was going with this....

Anyway, even though the weather was a bit cold to start out, we had a great day on our Kick-Off ride, which Mike led (thanks Mike). Loredo Taft was a local sculpture and Mike found a few of his creations. The pictures on this page are just a small view of the great time and information that Mike brought to the ride!

The Sturgis and Front Range Rides are set. Thanks to Bard and Wayne for all their efforts making these, worry free events for our members and guests. And lots of fun too!! Get out there if you haven't yet!!

Michael Motorcycle is living up to his name, leading more rides this year... Adding to his list for this year, he has scheduled a Father's day ride with an extra activity and also a multi-day, July 4th weekend ride to one of our favorite areas, Trempealeau, WI.

Also planning rides are; Jim Purcell, Ted Makarewicz and your's truly, which is my Picnic Pickup Ride.

Speaking of my ride, here is my list of attendees to date (original RSVP Cut-off). You don't see your name here, you better contact me quick to get on the list!! My contact information is below as usual...

Chuck
Mike
Ted
Bard
Gene/Noelle
Mary/Wayne
Greg/Jane
Rich/Diana

I'll be reaching out to these folks soon to confirm pick up times.

As for other events in the works, everyone should be planning to attend the Ride for Dreams on June, 13th. And, make sure to RSVP by June 4th for the Top Cats award banquet which is on June 26. Check the calendar for details and for other opportunities to ride and spend time with your top cats family.

Please stay safe so we can meet up soon!!

Please feel free to reach out to me at anytime via my email: Gene.rigsby@gmail.com, or phone, 847-770-9425.

Looking forward to seeing you there....

Gene "Lucky" Rigsby

By: Don Delordo
Road Captain

The riding season is finally here! I had to get the cleaning supplies including bug removers out to the front of the shelf. These are all good signs of great riding. Like they Say..."Live to Ride, Ride to live".

At our Road Captains meeting in October, I explained to our Road Captains how important it is for us to carry an "Emergency Medical Card" for you the Rider, and more importantly, for your "Better Half" or Co-Rider. I found one free site on the internet which allows you to enter your information including your Blood Type, Date of Birth, Emergency Contacts Physicians, any Medical Conditions / History, Medications, and anything Allergies / other information. I also recommend that you put on the bottom line the date the card was printed. I also recommend that whenever you change or add a Medication that you also update your card and reprint it.

Free Emergency Medical Information Card

All information stays on your computer. No information is shared or sent over the internet.

I recommend that you complete and print out 2 cards for you and your Co-Rider, so that each of you can carry both cards.

Be sure they can contact the ones you want to know...

If you would like to have the cards laminated, bring them to our next meeting and I will laminate them.

BSA Bikes to Return in 2021

You can now add BSA to the list of storied British brands being brought back from the dead. Thanks to India's massive Mahindra Group, the first BSA bikes since the 1970s are soon to be built in a new factory.

The plan will see the reborn BSA Company build a research center and put its first gas-powered bike into production in 2021. Soon after it will shift its focus to battery electric bikes, having received a grant from the British Government worth $6.1M.

Birmingham Small Arms was founded in 1861 and originally made guns at its Small Heath factory. The company moved into bicycles and then motorcycles in 1910. For a time in the 1950s BSA was the largest motorcycle manufacturer in the world, but the arrival of inexpensive and reliable motorcycles from Japan, combined with poor management, led to BSA's demise in 1973.

Not only does Mahindra, have the financial clout to bring back BSA, they recently revived Czech motorbike maker Jawa. Having bought the brand in 2016, Mahindra relaunched Jawa in 2018 and sold 50,000 motorcycles in its first year.

The first of the new-born BSA is set to be priced at less than $13,000.

Harley-Davidson Gets Serious About King of the Baggers

Last year was wild but in the motorcycle racing world, one wild event stood out in particular: the inaugural running of the King of the Baggers. The big-bore bagger race at Laguna Seca last October was a success story, and manufacturers are lining up to lend their support. First in line is Harley Davidson, who announced it will be fielding a factory team for the three-round series held in conjunction with the 2021 MotoAmerica Superbike series.

The new H-D Screamin' Eagle factory racing team will be fielding a race-prepped Road Glide Special powered by a modified Screamin'

Eagle Milwaukee-Eight 131 Performance Crate Engine, with pro rider Kyle Wyman at the helm. As Harley will tell you, the Screamin' Eagle Milwaukee-Eight 131 Performance Crate Engine is its most-powerful street-compliant engine; a 2,147cc monster claimed to deliver 131 pound-feet of torque.

In addition to the factory team, Harley-Davidson will offer a nearly $30,000 cash contingency program for qualified Harley racers competing in the King of the Baggers series as another carrot to draw potential riders.

Last year's King of the Baggers debut at Laguna Seca was so well received by both fans and riders that MotoAmerica announced earlier this year that it would expand to a five-round series. Unfortunately, that plan has been modified a bit, with the number of races now downsized, "due to a lack of sufficient track time" at the Barber Motorsports Park round, which has been removed from the schedule.

The series is open to qualified AMA license holders, with championship points being tallied and a national champion crowned at season's end.

The new three-round series kicks off April 30 at Michelin Raceway Road Atlanta, continuing on to Road America in Wisconsin on June 11-13, and wrapping up at California's WeatherTech Raceway Laguna Seca July 9-11.

HARLEY-DAVIDSON CERTIFIED PRE-OWNED MOTORCYCLES

Harley-Davidson revealed the details of Harley-Davidson Certified, the first certified pre-owned motorcycle program supported by Harley-Davidson through its network of authorized Harley-Davidson dealers in the United States.

“H-D Certified is a strategic effort to strengthen our competitive position and is part of our new approach to the used motorcycle marketplace, aligned to the strategic priorities of The Hardwire, while supporting growth,” said Jochen Zeitz, chairman, president and CEO, Harley-Davidson. “We believe this program will drive Harley-Davidson desirability and enhance the overall customer experience, allowing more riders to have access to our motorcycles and provide them with an added level of confidence in their purchase.”

The Harley-Davidson Certified program is designed to take the worry out of purchasing a pre-owned Harley-Davidson motorcycle.

Each Harley-Davidson Certified pre-owned motorcycle will be subjected to a comprehensive 110-point quality-assurance inspection by certified Harley-Davidson technicians. Dealers will also verify that the pre-owned motorcycle has no open recalls or a blocked VIN, has not been in a major accident, and that all scheduled service is up to date. Harley-Davidson motorcycles eligible for the program must be no more than five model years old, have less than 25,000 miles of use, and not contain aftermarket modifications to the engine or transmission, or major chassis or electrical modifications.

A Harley-Davidson Certified pre-owned motorcycle will be sold with a 12-month limited warranty on the engine and transmission. Each Harley-Davidson Certified motorcycle sale also includes a complimentary one-year membership in H.O.G. (Harley Owners Group), with standard member benefits like roadside assistance. Special financing rates and programs for the purchase of a Harley-Davidson Certified pre-owned motorcycle will be available through Harley-Davidson Financial Services to qualified customers.

Participation in the Harley-Davidson Certified program will be at the discretion of each authorized Harley-Davidson dealer.

International Female Ride Day

The 15th annual International Female Ride Day (IFRD) returns to the first Saturday of May, when women in more than 120 countries will participate by riding their motorcycles, off-road vehicles, snowmobiles or other powersports vehicles in unity and support of the female riding community. This year's theme, #FocusFemaleForward, emphasizes the goals of IFRD, including encouraging new women to ride while shining a light on the diverse participation of women already engaging in powersports.

Over the last decade, female ridership has increased significantly, and the momentum generated on this one day is needed to continue advancing the future of motorcycling and powersports for women.

“This year women around the world will be active, riding in celebration, unity and support of the female riding community more than ever before. Whether on roads, dirt, sand or snow, riding continues to be an exhilarating, liberating and a fulfilling activity for women of all skill levels. The female riding community continues to expand every year, and this is our day to celebrate,” said Vicki Gray, IFRD founder.

“Every day, scores of women put on their helmet and point their ride towards an open road, mountain or trail,” said Pam Kermisch, Polaris chief customer engagement and growth officer. “IFRD is about taking a moment to celebrate how incredible that sisterhood is while encouraging female riders to bring along other women in their lives to share in the riding experience.”

We believe in uplifting the voices of our female riders across the powersports industry. Helping female ridership flourish and creating a sense of community is important for women, as well as the powersports community."

Fox River Harley-Davidson to host 'Ride Like A Girl' event

"This one's for the girls!" claims an Instagram post from Fox River Harley-Davidson, which plans to host an "all female" ride as part of International Female Ride Day on May 1.

Numerous brands are taking part in the promotional event to widen the demographics of powersports enjoyment.

Harley-Davidson Confirms Limited Edition Electra Glide Revival

Dennis Chung April 19, 2021

Harley-Davidson's Q1 2021 financial report revealed more details about the mysterious "Revival" model and showed a photo of a near production version of the Custom 1250 liquid-cooled cruiser.

In January, at the end of Harley-Davidson's 2021 model launch presentation, we saw a glimpse of the "Revival". The video showed part of a fuel tank console with "Revival" prominently displayed.

Harley-Davidson confirms details on the Revival and the new Icons Collection will be released April 26. Jochen Zeitz, Harley-Davidson chief executive officer and president, says the "Icons will be extraordinary adaptations of production motorcycles which look to our storied past and bright future." Only 1,500 units will be made of each icon, with one or two icon models selected each year, with the Electra Glide Revival being this year's icon.

The overall profile looks like the current Electra Glide Standard, with a batwing fairing, large front fender and hard cases. There are some visible differences, though. The front fender has some additional trim, like earlier FLH models, and the wheel uses wire spokes instead of the Standard's cast wheel. The tire also looks thicker than the Electra Glide Standard, and it wouldn't be a surprise if it has white sidewalls, too.

The saddle looks flatter and taller than what you'd typically find on current models, and a passenger grab handle similar to those found on Electra Glides of yore is plainly visible.

Despite the retro looks, the Revival will be powered by a Milwaukee-Eight 114 engine

The first quarter report also included a single image of what looks to be the production version of the Revolution Max-powered Custom 1250. The new photo shows some changes indicating it is close to production. The image was accompanied by the phrase "Expand within the cruiser segment," which suggests the Custom 1250 may be an addition to Harley-Davidson's existing lineup and not a direct replacement for the Sportster as some expect.

Apart from the functioning lighting, the changes include new bar-end mirrors, a reflector on the front fender, a new bash plate design, a different radiator design, exhaust heat shielding, a new license plate holder with rear lighting and rear brake lines. There's also a new cover between the cylinder heads similar to the one found on the Pan America. The photo also shows Harley-Davidson-branded Dunlop tires.

Zeitz says this second Revolution Max model will "redefine the premium middleweight cruiser segment." The word "premium" here would suggest this will not be positioned as a replacement for the Sportster line, though that remains to be determined. Also interesting is that neither Zeitz nor the presentation referred to the name "Custom 1250," which suggests that the production name may yet be announced.

Wisconsin's Wild Wandering...

V.P.'s Vision

By: Mary 'Trooper' Kirkpatrick

We are all looking for the riding season to begin... and with so many great opportunities close by, we can surely enjoy each opportunity that we are able to ride this year.

Wayne Kirkpatrick and Mike Bradbury have been known to find some great roads 'Up North'. Wayne has been known to wind a ride around great twisties and beautiful scenery to end up at the Iconic Harley Davidson Museum in downtown Milwaukee. He's also been seen with large groups at the Annual Harley Davidson Rally, which looks like it may happen this year.

Mike Bradbury has a knack for finding a theme to his rides and after a day of great travel through twisties and trees, you end up 'driftless' and full of food, fun and friends in Trempealeau and surrounding areas. Or on the other side of the state with 'round the lake' memories floating in your head.

Well, after looking through places that I'd like to spend time exploring, here are a few ideas of what we could plan for the next few months! Let's start way up North with a 350 mile ride to the Apostle Islands. This one would have to be a full week of riding and could possibly contain all of the next few ideas all in one. An early fall timeframe would also be advised, as it is far enough north to be chilly during the DAYS and nights. But the scenery is so worth the time! The Geological History is wonderfully rich and canoeing, hiking and riding will give you opportunities to see ice caves, caverns and beautiful sunsets, sunrises and cliffs! This is a lifetime's worth of beauty all in one place!

A bit closer to home, but with some of the same breathtaking sites are Hayward and Tomahawk, Wisconsin! Hayward has been known for it's Lumberjack Festival, which could offer some great entertainment! And Tomahawk is the home to an annual biker gathering on the second weekend after Labor Day. Both of these destinations are in beautiful areas with many memorable roads, activities, food and when shared with friends, they can offer beautiful memories that will last for years to come!

And one final option for exploring Wisconsin is Monroe, the home to some great Cheese and Platteville, the home of the big M. Yes... the letter M is maintained by the University of Wisconsin, Platteville and has a story of it's own... If you are curious, find a Road Captain to mentor you and begin to plan now! Take your Top Cats family on a scavenger hunt to unlock the mystery of the M... There is much more to discover there too!

After our long quarantine, doesn't all of this sound inspiring? I hope so... and I hope to see AWHOLE LOT of you all this summer! Check the calendar often for updates. Ride Safe and... Be Ready!
